

Getting to VIR

The VIRginia International Raceway is located in the scenic hills of Virginia, 12 miles east of Danville, VA, 20 miles west of South Boston, VA, and just north of historic Milton, NC.

Driving from the North

- From Route 58 east of Danville, VA, take Route 62 South to Milton, NC, through the traffic light and onto Route 57 South. Continue one half mile and turn left onto Racetrack Road. The VIR entrance is 1 mile on the left.
- From Route 58 west of South Boston, VA, take Route 119/Calvery Road South. Go 3.5 miles, then turn right on Sunset Road (Sunset Road becomes Pointer Road in VA). Go 4.5 miles to the VIR entrance on the right.

Driving from the South

- Traveling North toward Milton, NC, on Route 62, turn right onto Route 57 South. Continue on one half mile and turn left onto Racetrack Road. The VIR entrance is 1 mile on the left.
- Traveling North on Route 57, turn right onto Dotmond Road. At the end, turn right. The VIR entrance is 1 mile on the left.
- Traveling North on Route 119, turn left on Sunset Road (Sunset Road becomes Pointer Road in VA). Go 4.5 miles to VIR's entrance on the right.

NOTE: Tow rigs over 10 tons (20,000 pounds) should use Dotmond Road off NC 57 - NOT Race Track Road, due to a low limit bridge. Dotmond Road is 2 miles south of the light in Milton. Turn left on Dotmond Road & proceed 2 miles to the stop sign. The VIR's main entrance is straight ahead.
